

Dear Friend,

You are most cordially invited to be our guest at the dinner party we have arranged next week. It will be great having you among us!

We are going to arrange a dinner party at our sweet home . Your presence is what we are asking for to make it a memorable one!

Your company is all that we are asking for as we celebrate the night next week with our friends and relatives. Please join us to have a share in our happiness!

It's always a pleasure to have you with us. Let's have yet another occasion to sit together and share some delicious foods and desserts. You are cordially invited!

Nothing makes the bonds stronger than sharing the same food with our loved ones. We invite you to join us on next week as we have planned to throw a dinner party at our residence!

Best Regards
